WTAY AGM

Our AGM at Sky High Wilderness Ranch was a huge success with approximately 30 people attending and an additional 8 kids. Horse rides and visits with the puppies were the order of the day. Gary, Trudy, and the rest of the Sky High team did a great job and provided us with a wonderful meal. Thanks also to Up North Adventures for hosting the meeting in their very comfortable yurt.

Elections for the new Board were held and there were discussions on many topics. I hope to have the minutes sent out in the next E-News. We want to continue the trend of social events for our members throughout the year so stay tuned for news on our next get-together.

Your new WTAY Board members for 2015-2016 are:

President – Kalin Pallett

Vice-President – Jill Pangman

Treasurer/Secretary – Max Gouyou-Beauchamps

Director – Felix Geithner

Director – Dustin Davis

Director – Frank Mueller

Director – Gary Burdess

Director – Briana Mackay

WTAY Membership Invoice Reminder

WTAY membership invoices for 2015-2016 have all been sent by email. Thanks to all of you who have already submitted your payment. We continue to support our members through several initiatives and your backing of the association through the timely payment of the membership fee is very much appreciated. If you have any questions regarding your invoice or you did not receive one, please contact Kelly at the office. It's a very busy time of year for most of you but if you haven't provided your payment yet, please do so quickly.

CPAWS Peel Update

The Vuntut Gwitchin First Nation has officially joined us as respondents in our legal case.

Legal arguments on behalf of the First Nations of Nacho Nyak Dun, Tr'ondëk Hwëch'in and Vuntut Gwich'in, plus CPAWS Yukon and YCS have now been filed with the courts.

The Gwich'in Tribal Council has been approved for intervener status.

The Court of Appeal's decision on the Yukon Land Use Planning Council's application for intervener status will be announced June 9th.
