Air North Launches Victoria Flights on May 18

Don't forget that Air North's new flight service to Victoria started on May 18. The flight operates on Monday and Friday and flies from Whitehorse, to Victoria, then on to Kelowna and finally, back to Whitehorse.

We also want to remind you that Air North participates in the WTAY Member Rewards Program. You can find details of their offer at Air North.

YFNCT's New Welcome Guide

You can now view the Yukon First Nation Culture and Tourism Association's Welcome Guide online. As your wilderness tourism clients book their visits, why not pass along this link so that they might consider taking some extra time to enjoy what the Yukon has to offer in First Nation culture, history, art, and entertainment

This 52-page publication has been designed to showcase Yukon First Nations dynamic, evolving and rich cultural traditions to both local and visitor audiences. Through specially commissioned photography and many talented Yukon photographers, it captures the dynamic spirit and beauty that exists in Yukon.

ATTA - Virtual Reality: Insights and Opportunities

Using VR technology, today's travelers can stand on mountain peaks and dive to the deepest depths of the ocean without ever leaving home. But what does this mean for tour companies and destinations, have adoption strategies for this technology been successful, and is now the right time to jump on the virtual bandwagon?
